Dear Peter,

Chairman's Advisory Group Meeting, British Museum
Wednesday January 15 2020
17:30 – 19:00

I look forward to welcoming you to the Museum for the Chairman's Advisory Group meeting on Wednesday, January 15.

After the recent general election, I would find it very useful to hear your views about how the Museum might best engage with the new Government as we set off on our ambitious development programme for the next decade. I have outlined some of the issues in the attached notes, and have included for your information the Museum's annual summary of its activities across the UK.

Before our discussion, I thought we should start with a quick private tour of the wonderful Troy exhibition, which is proving to be a great hit with the public.

I have also included an agenda and a list of the other attendees.

If you have any questions about the arrangements, please contact [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]@britishmuseum.org.

All best wishes for the New Year,

Sir Richard Lambert
Chairman of the Trustees, British Museum
